Joy of Giving

-By R/P. Purvi Harish Chauhan

An act of giving makes one feel good and sometimes it is indescribable. The joy of giving starts with sharing which is an important social and emotional skill, showing kindness, helping others is an empathetic gesture.

It takes courage and makes a difference when one has a heart to do something for others and does not expect anything in return. It gives a sense of innate satisfaction and multiplies happiness. When we give to others, our brain reacts and chemicals such as dopamine and endorphins are released, which causes a warm feeling associated with happiness.

There is a famous quote 'The more you give of yourself, the more you find yourself.' There are many reasons and ways of giving, to show an appreciation, to say thank you, to wish someone simply, to show someone you care. There are many people we come across in our day to day life who perhaps makes our day easier i.e. co-workers, neighbors, friends, our daily helpers etc. apart from our family. While giving doesn't always have to be a gift or a thing, just offering a kind word, a friendly smile, a warm welcome, an appreciation will surely encourage friendly and successful connections.

Slowly we will love and experience moments of change in our life when we start realizing the true meaning and its impact on others through the feeling 'Joy of Giving'. Nevertheless, we can individually in various ways celebrate the joy of giving, making difference to others and achieve a sense of empowerment, pride, and accomplishment.

“It's not how much we give but how much love we put into giving” ---- Mother Teresa

Every Saturday these little hearts enjoy the snacks happily. Their non-verbal gestures communicate all the happiness which cannot be revealed in words but surely one can feel when we visit Aanganwadi. This feeding programme has created a ties of bond between Aanganwadi kids and Our Club members.

Congratulations and Best Wishes

Our club congratulates R/P. Manjari Desai for her journey to Thailand to pursue her dream of dancing while experiencing a different cultural mix. She with her wonderful dance group presented our country in dance troupe under guidance of Shraddha Shah – DID Supermom and Guru – The Art Hub, Ahmedabad. Indian traditional dances Garba, Ganesh Vandana, Bhangra and Gondhal were gracefully represented by the troupe while travelling at Buriram Province, Mahasarakham University (college of music), Phnomwon Sanctuary, Khonburi district, KlongYai district etc. At every above destination the group received warm welcome and applause.
