GOV special edition

President and members of Rotary club of Ottapalam

welcome our beloved District Governor

Rtn. MD S. Rajmohan Nair

and First Lady Mrs. Meera R Nair

during his official visit to the club on Saturday, 16th April 2023.

Dear fellow Rotarians, anns, annets and friends,

Greetings from the Editorial team!

Here is the 8th issue of Ottapalam Rotary News(ORN) bulletin Volume XXXVII Issue #8 for the Rotary year 2022-23. This ORN, the special GOV issue include activities of March 2023.

We are delighted to welcome the Rotary District Governor (DG) Rtn. Raj Mohan Nair and first lady to our Rotary Club of Ottapalam. It is an honor to have the DG visit us and share their knowledge, experience, and ideas to inspire and guide us on our Rotary journey.

The DG's visit is an occasion to celebrate the spirit of Rotary and reflect on our achievements and future goals. We are proud of our Club's contributions to our community through our service projects, scholarships, and other initiatives that have made a positive impact on people's lives.

As we welcome the DG, we take this opportunity to thank them for their leadership and commitment to Rotary's values of service, fellowship, diversity, integrity, and leadership. We look forward to learning from their experiences and insights and strengthening our partnership with the District to advance our common goals.

During their visit, the DG will have the opportunity to meet our members, learn about our projects and initiatives, and share their vision for the District. We are excited about the prospect of working with the DG and the District to make a meaningful difference in our community and beyond. We hope DG will be appreciative about our Rotary Garden initiatives for saving the environment with our Miyawaki forest, star trees and herbal garden project.

We thank the DG for their visit and look forward to a productive and inspiring visit that will motivate us to continue serving humanity through Rotary.

President's Message

Dear Rotarians, Anns and Annets,
Rotary Greetings!

It gives me immense pleasure to release special edition of Ottapalam Rotary News on the occasion of the Governor's Official Visit.

We are proud of inaugurating the "Paul Harris Memorial Garden" consisting a Miawalki Forest, A Nakshathra Vanam and a Herbal Garden, today. It was possible only due to the whole-hearted support by all members and my special appreciation to Rtn Rajesh Nambiar, Rtn Sunil Ammath, Rtn Col Gangadharan and Rtn CP Baiju for their relentless efforts to bring it into the present shape.

During the past ten months we have done considerably good number of service and community projects and that reflects the responsibility and dedication of all members.

Happy to mention here that Charter Certificates for our newly formed Interact Club of Bhavans Vidyalaya, Varode and RCC Lakkidi Perur have been received.

We have conducted two Rotary family tours one to Nelliampathy forest and other to pilgrimage cities of Uttar Pradesh.

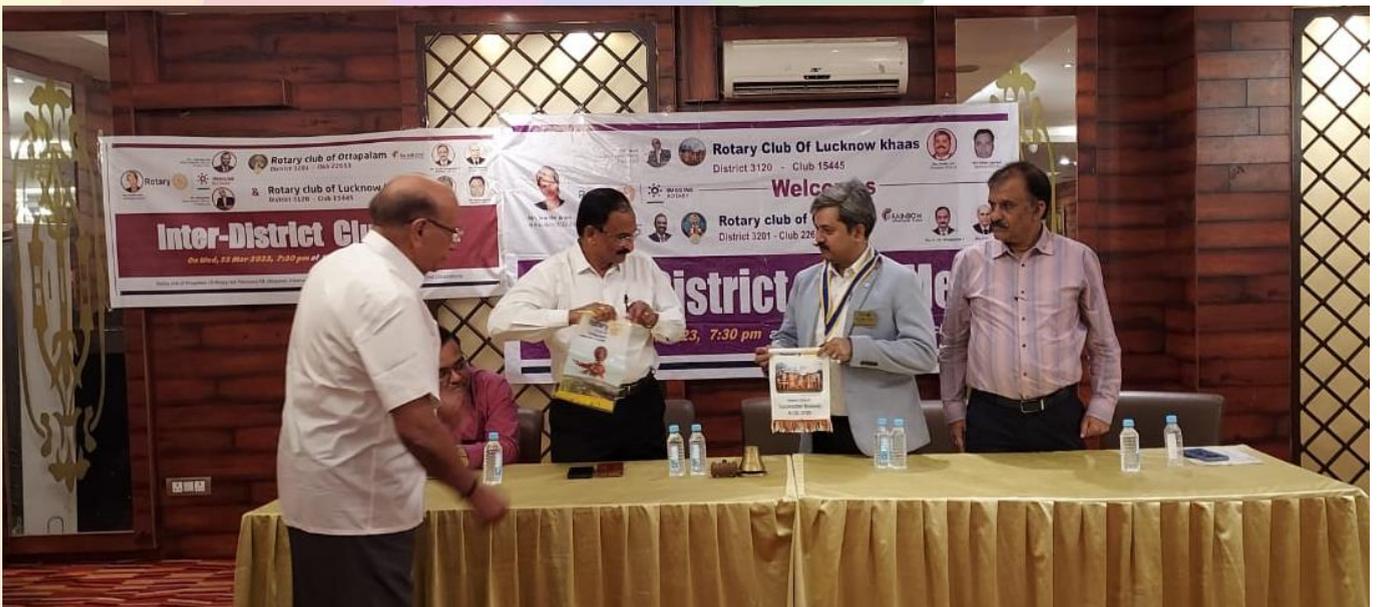

The tour was not only enjoyable and have lot of fun but also further strengthened the inter-personal bonds.

On behalf of all members of Rotary Club of Ottapalam I convey our sincere thanks and gratitude to Rtn Aniket Anil, President, Rtn Aditya Aggarwal, Secretary and all members of Rotary Club of Lucknow Khaas for hosting the Inter-District-Club Meeting on 22 March 2023.

Jai Rotary
